

THE DAILY NEWS.

RALEIGH, N. C., MONDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 2, 1872.

NO. 158.

CITY SUPERIOR COURT
on Friday, after one or and orderly sessions, as best known in the country of Radical vice and the Grand Jury was only had a half days, and we indictments of a trivial side.

is presided over the Court,
he knew, dispensed justice, favor or affection, great deal more than can be the Radical judiciary general-al in small country towns, which is the most important era of the country people, whether have business before the Court or generally flock in numbers to the Court house. Commission merchants, agricultural implement dealers, fertilizer agents, insurance agents, sewing machine representatives, &c., &c., go to see the people, and as a natural consequence the stir and excitement is immense. Now, that Court has adjourned, the excitement subsided and quiet resumed, the trot of a dog, this morning, can be heard from one square to another and the fact even noted.

The most unusual circumstance of the week was the peace and good order prevailed throughout the session of Court. Not a single street fight or a quarrel or skirmish, though a fight was concocted at Brownlow's house, by a couple of gentlemen from the country, on Tuesday night, for the purpose of perpetrating a "sell" on the officers, which to ye Local's great ment proved a decided success.

Rapid strides to the scene of action, determined efforts to preserve the life and arrest the seemingly bloody combatants, and the complete success of our excellent sheriff when
"sell" became apparent, afforded no amusement to the bystanders, who were likewise "sold" as much as the others.

Yesterday Jack Duke, colored, living in the Macon Depot section, reported himself at the office of Dr. T. E. Wilson for medical treatment for wounds received in an altercation with his wife. Dr. Wilson being professionally absent, Dr. G. A. Foote was called on, and upon examination it was found that the unfortunate man had been cut in the abdomen, the wound six inches deep and six inches long. His intestines protruded from the wound, and he walked 8 miles, holding them in his hand, to the Dr.'s office. He is lying now in an extremely critical condition, with little or no hope entertained of his recovery. An officer has been despatched to arrest his wife, who will be committed to jail without trial.

The tax list for Warren county has been completed by the clerks, and placed in the hands of the Sheriff. We observe that the taxable property of the county amounts to one million, nine hundred and seventeen thousand dollars. The county pays to the State $6,194.58, of which amount $2,880.64 is special State tax. The amount of tax levied for county purposes, special and otherwise amounts to $2,504.88. Entire tax for State and county, $28,699.46.

The weather this morning is decidedly cool and pleasant, and it is feared that should it continue, serious damage to the cotton will necessarily follow.

There are five inmates in the county jail.

Extensive preparations are being made to render the ball and concert at Ridgeway a great success.

The poor house of the county, we see from the Register of Deeds, is still supporting, only ten inmates—6 colored and 4 whites.

We were happy to meet Mr.
Diarmuid, Editor of that excellent and able Weekly, the Robertsonian in our office Saturday. We are pleased to hear his paper is flourishing.

We tender our acknowledgement to Messrs. J. M. & W. E. Forrest, corner
Ulmington and Market streets, dealers Wines, Liquors &c. for a bottle of the old Rye Whiskey, which is as fine
as we ever tasted.

PLEASANT PIC-NIC.—A large number of Sunday school scholars, teachers and their relatives and friends, from Garnerville, paid us an unexpected, though welcome, visit Saturday. They visited the principal places of interest and returned home in fine spirits, which were addressed by Rev. A. W.
Leach, and Mr. Leach, of the Dead
Dumb Asylum. Mr. Leach's speech was impromptu, and is said to have been the most brilliant of his life.

THE GAZETTE VS. WOODSON.—The Warrenton Gazette contains the following hit at the local Editor of the News.
As we know nothing of the facts of the case, and are not very good on mathematics, we do not know whether the ladies lost $8.43 by Woodson's appetite. If it is a fact, and we believe true, Foote is a reliable man and a truthful editor, Woodson should be called on to refund the amount he overate:

"We do not publish anonymous correspondence, nor will we permit the columns of the Gazette to be made the vehicle for personal allusions; therefore we respectfully decline the article entitled "The Great Masticator." The anonymous defamer expresses himself as a devout believer in the accounts of Woodson's grape exploits as narrated by Gen. Leach and the Raleigh News, after seeing him at the dinner given by the ladies of the Baptist church, on Wednesday last. The usual privileges of the press were allowed, and Woodson was only charged for one meal. An accurate calculation was made after the departure of the guests, and it was ascertained that if he had paid for two,
as is usually required of the said W., the ladies would have lost $8.43, provisions being estimated at wholesale rates."

NOBLE BOYHOOD.—The accomplished
editress of the Rocky Mount Mail, Mrs.
C. C. Stilley has recently paid a visit to Kittrell's. While there she made the acquaintance of Master Johnnie Black-nall, a little two year old son of "mine host," Dr. Blacknall, the universally known proprietor of the Yarboro House.
Hear what Mrs. Stilley says about the "perfect specimen of noble boyhood!"

"The most perfect specimen to noble boyhood came under our observation while at Kittrell's, in the person of little Johnnie, son of Dr. Blacknall, of Raleigh, N. C.

Johnnie is only two years old, large, firmly built and intelligent. Talks perfectly plain and to the point, and is without one of the most noble, generous hearted and amiable children we have ever seen. His nurse assured us that it had never worn shoe or sock, that it was against the Doctor's rules for his children to wear the above appendages until three years of age.

Little Johnnie is a perfect Hebe, and we will long remember his friendship and originality. Editor."

A DISTINGUISHED JOURNALIST DYING.

The friends of Manton Marble, of the World, will regret to learn that his health, for long while seriously impaired, is growing worse instead of better. The exact nature of his disease does not seem to be known. It appears, as I understand, to be completely broken down; his physicians have no hope of his recovery, and, indeed, fear that he cannot live six month longer.—
It is fully a year since he has been able to do any editorial work, and he has been confined to his house for some time past.

Mr. Marble is still young—little more than forty—and has had such a sudden and rapid rise in journalism that it is a pity he should be easily removed from the prosperity he has achieved. It is hardly twelve years since he was employed upon the Evening Post, of this city at a salary of $25 a week, and for three years past he has been the sole controller and owner of the World, now to any very handsome property. If Mr. Marble should die, as is generally feared, his newspaper would doubtless be offered for sale, as he is a widower, and, I believe, without children, or near relatives to whom he would be likely to bequeath the journal.

I am informed that George W. Childs, of Philadelphia, has his eye upon the World, and hopes to purchase it in the event of Mr. Marble's decease. If the melancholy apprehensions felt in regard to the latter gentleman's health be verified, he will be the third editor of the great morning quartet who have passed away within the last few years—

—Henry J. Raymond, Manton Marble
Bennett, and Manton Marble; leaving as survivor only Horace Greeley, who died fair to have 20 years of valuable work in him yet.

and others.

And Against

John M. Lyon, Henry
F. Moore and wife
others.

This cause comes on to be heard, and it appears to the satisfaction of the Court that John M. Lyon, Henry F. Moore, and Martha J., his wife, William H. Lyon, Mathew Barber and his wife Virginia M.
William Lyon, Jr., his wife Estelle M.
Lyon and John J. Lyon, Hugh E. Lyon, Rowan

of this state.

On motion of Benjamin F. Bullock, Juvenile Lawyer for the plaintiffs, it is ordered, that publication be made for six weeks in the Raleigh DAILY, a newspaper published in the city of Raleigh, North Carolina, notifying the said defendants of the filing of the complaint in this cause, and that they make appearance before the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court for the 15th day of October next, and answer the same as peremptorily as the prayer of the plaintiff will be granted and commissioners appointed to make said partition according to law.

THE LOSS OF THE METIS.

Era's statement; that if troops are wanted at Salisbury for any purpose, help is more in need of assistance than Henderson, and if any Ku Kluxing has been done, Henderson is the guilty assailant. He made the attack and he came off in flying colors.

The New York Times is the acknowledged Administration organ in New York City. We verily believe that the Times has been egregiously imposed upon. We do not believe a paper, claiming any decency or respectability, would knowingly lend itself to such a scheme of deception and trickery as that to which it was recently fallen a victim.

No Radical paper in North Carolina has insinuated that the Salisbury Press had the slightest connection with the Ku Klux, either directly or indirectly. On the other hand, they have published statements concerning it, to show how Henderson, a leading Radical light, chastised Helper, a Liberal Republican editor, for an abusive and scurrilous article in his paper, reflecting on Henderson.

Perhaps, however, it has been determined in Radical circles that troops are necessary to carry North Carolina for Grant in November, and therefore the Administration is seeking a pretext to take military possession of the State.

If that be so, it has been very unfortunate, to say the least, in seizing hold of the Salisbury street fight as the occasion for the exercise of its military power. The disturbance was so insignificant in itself—so utterly contemptible, that it scarcely excited a passing remark, as it concerned no one except the two parties immediately engaged in it.

The Times' correspondent will have to try to get up another "reign of terror" in North Carolina." This last dodge is decidedly too transparent. It is a burlesque, and a gross imposition upon the public.

We have devoted more space to this subject than it deserves, but in justice to the State of North Carolina, we have deemed it proper to let the world know the origin of the Times' "reign of terror" in our midst—the extent that "reign"—and the calamitous and fatal results thereof, in order that the public might judge the necessity of sending troops to North Carolina to put down scenes of disorder and outrage.

"THE GRAND AND GLORIOUS VICTORY."

The Radical papers continue to crow over the result in West Virginia as a victory for Grant!

The last Winston Republican calls it a "great and glorious victory." That paper takes occasion, like the Raleigh Era, to rejoice over the defeat of the new Constitution and the regular Democratic nominees.

These papers refuse to tell the people that Governor Jacob, the independent Democratic candidate, who is elected, is for Greeley and Brown. They willfully deceive their readers by parading the result as a blow against Greeley; and claim the State for Grant in November!

The Radical party in West Virginia was too weak to run a candidate of its own, and therefore voted for Jacob against Camden, the regular nominee. It is well known that both Camden and Jacob are in favor of Greeley and Brown; but the Presidential question did not enter at all into the State canvass.

The Era denounces the Democratic party in West Virginia for voting for the measure submitted to the people at the late election to exclude colored men from office.

Now, although the Democratic Constitution, over whose defeat the Era rejoiced, was in fact adopted, yet the proposition prohibiting colored men from holding office, was at the same time voted down! This was due to aid of Democratic votes. The Radicals voted against the new Constitution, but it was adopted, in spite of their opposition, thus showing that the Radicals of themselves, were too weak to defeat the proposition to exclude colored men from office.

The Era, in its comments on the Virginia election, seeks to create the impression that the Democratic party would do injustice to the colored race, when the fact is, by the votes of Democrats in West Virginia, the colored men in that State are permitted to hold office.

The Democrats have a large majority there. This is proved by the fact that the Radicals did not have sufficient strength of their own to nominate a regular candidate. Our party, by voting for the proposition above referred to, could easily have prevented the colored men from holding office in that State, but instead of doing so, they voted down the proposition at the ballot-box. And yet, in view of this fact, the Era and Winston Republican denounce the Democratic party as being opposed to the rights of man!

The Era and all other papers shout over the victory of Governor in West Virginia. But let us consider their reading.

It used to be saying in former presidential campaigns that "as Pennsylvania goes in October election so goes the Union in November." It looks now as if the Democrats had the best of it in that State.

"NO POLITICAL FREEDOM AMONG THE BLACKS."

The Enforcement Act of Congress was passed by the Radicals for the purpose of preventing the intimidation of the white men of the South of the colored voters.

The Act was ostensibly intended to guarantee a free and fair expression of every voter's honest political sentiments at the ballot-box, without let or hindrance from any source.

We venture the assertion that where the Act in question has been violated by the Democrats, it has been violated ten times by the Radicals.

We remember how greatly surprised were the colored men of Raleigh when they learned, for the first time, in the cases of Cross and Cravom, the colored Georgians who were threatened and beaten, that the law against intimidation operated equally for the protection of all persons without regard to color or political sentiments. They had hitherto been laboring under the delusion that the law was exclusively for the benefit of Radicals.

We know that many colored men in the State would have voted for Judge Merrimon for Governor, if they had not been afraid to do so. This fear is either of physical ill-treatment or social ostracism. In some communities of this State, colored men believe they cannot express sentiments against the Radical party, without danger to limb or life.

There are numbers of colored men at the South who, if left alone, would readily support Horace Greeley for President. But on account of the political slavery in which they are bound, they are afraid to do so. They are afraid to express their honest sentiments. They would, in many instances be insulted, snarled at, abused and mobbed.

There is no political freedom among the blacks at the South. On the other hand, they are in the most servile political easelage. Greeley colored men stand in awe of maltreatment from their own race. They will vote under duress for Grant. And this is called a free country!

"THE GOVERNOR AND LEGISLATURE."

We have requested our friends everywhere to send us the correct names of the members elect to the Legislature, and we keep the request standing at the head of our editorial columns.

It has now been one month since the election, and yet we have been unable to get a correct list of the new members.

A few of our friends have sent us the names of the members from their counties, but we desire to hear from every county.

The official vote for Governor is not yet precisely known. We keep a table standing of the vote of the counties as received here, which we believe to be substantially correct, but we learn that about half the counties only have officially reported to the Secretary of State.

The tardiness with which our election returns come to hand is disgraceful to North Carolina. The next Legislature should pass a law, compelling the Sheriffs, under penalties, to send the official returns from their respective counties to the Secretary of State one week after the election.

The people have a right to know who is their Governor. And while the formal counting of the vote may well be left to the Legislature, as at present, yet some provision should be made requiring the Sheriffs to forward the returns promptly after the election takes place.

The haggard and tardy manner in which the election news has been sent in from the various counties is not creditable to the enterprise nor intelligence of the State.

"THE PARDONS OF THE KU KLUX STOPPED."

A few days since, it was announced by telegraph that the Government had decided to pardon four of the Ku Klux prisoners from North Carolina, now confined in the Albany Penitentiary.

The next day, we published a dispatch that the pardons of these prisoners had been stopped on account of information received at Washington City from official sources in North Carolina.

Now, we would like to know what "official circles" are referred to?

Is it Gov. Caldwell who has been guilty of this little piece of inhumanity?

Where is the official base enough to stop an act of Executive clemency, on the eve of its consummation?

If some of the prisoners at Albany, after investigation by the Government, are deemed deserving of pardon, where is the official in North Carolina who will step in between the chained captive and the free air of liberty?

Where is the heart so callous to every feeling of humanity—so devoid of kindness and mercy—so black and malignant, as to dash the cup of happiness untasted from the lips of an unfortunate fellow-man, and again close the prison doors upon him, when they were ready to fly open at the voice of forgiveness and justice?

It used to be saying in former presidential campaigns that "as Pennsylvania goes in October election so goes the Union in November." It looks now as if the Democrats had the best of it in that State.

"GLEAM OF HOPE."

The only gleam of hope for the South is the election of Horace Greeley in November.

The contemplation of another reign of Grantism fills the soul with dark forebodings and melancholy reflections.

The South, under the present Administration, has been shamefully trampled down and crushed by hostile legislation and Federal power.

We have seen every cherished principle of the Constitution of our fathers violated and spurned by the party in power, for the sake of retaining their hold on the offices of the government.

We have seen innocent men arrested without process of law and cast into dungeons with thieves and murderers.

We have seen the rights of trial by jury, of Habeas Corpus, of freedom from arrests and imprisonment without legal process, of free elections, of freedom of the press and of speech—all struck down by the mailed hand of power, under a government claiming to be Republican and boasting of its magnanimity and blessings.

The re-election of President Grant will be an endorsement of all these violations of law, and will encourage him to make still further strides towards centralization and despotism.

The election of Horace Greeley will be the signal for return to the Constitutional rights which have been so ruthlessly trampled under foot by the present Administration.

"THE LATEST DODGE."

The Radical brain is fertile in trickery and inventive skill. Some astute Radical lawyer has just found out that the Legislature elected on the first Thursday in August, is an unconstitutional body, and that it becomes the duty of Governor Caldwell to declare the election null and void, and to issue his proclamation ordering a new election.

This new game is started for the purpose of killing off investigation of the Radical frauds, in the late election.

A writer in the last Era attempts to argue seriously the unconstitutionality of the election act as passed by the last Legislature, and the Era editorially endorses the position assumed by its correspondent.

North Carolina Radicalism dies hard

"The Baltimore Murder."

The Baltimore papers of Thursday contain some items of interest about the terrible murder of Mrs. Wheat there on Tuesday night. It appears that Uppercase once studied for the ministry at Dickinson College. We gather some from them:

The prisoner charged with the crime Jesse Uppercuse, was held at the western police station for some time after the close of the inquest on Tuesday, whence he was removed to the city jail during the afternoon, and was first confined in the same cell with Henry V. Clinton, the alleged bank robber, but was afterwards removed and confined alone.—The jail officials state that he rested well throughout the night, and ate a hearty breakfast yesterday morning, seemed cool and confident and nothing loth to converse with any one upon the subject of the homicide. During the morning he read the morning papers, detailed the coroner's inquest, and remarked that "there was nothing there to convict him." Later in the day he was visited by Judge Inglis, of South Carolina, and Neilson Poe, Esq., his counsel, who were engaged in a long conversation with him. About eleven o'clock his mother visited him, and the meeting was a very affecting one, the lady occasionally giving way to her maternal feelings.

"AUCTION!"

That splendid property, on Newbern avenue, in the city of Raleigh, known as

"IDLE WILD,"

The former residence of the late John Cotton, is offered for sale.

The dwelling is the largest and most perfect private residence in the city, containing fifteen rooms, as follows: One 32x20; a large hall; a passage 18x8 feet by 10. The house is two stories, with dressed rock basement, upper and lower porches with large columns on each side. All the necessary furniture, including carriage house, &c., &c., are on the premises.

The lot contains about three acres including a large garden with the most magnificent trees to be found in the State; a most beautiful and sloping lawn of ample depth and width fronts the dwelling. The property is situated in the city, on an elevation of some fifty feet above the Capitol; the healthiest and most attractive and growing part of the city; the grounds, fence, walls, buildings, are in the most perfect order—not one dollar is required to be spent on same.

The above valuable property has been sent to the New York Court House door on Wednesday, October 16th, at 12 o'clock. Terms easy.

N.B.—This property has been highly recommended for a Boy's Civil or Military education, and instruction of both kinds sadly wanted at this point.

STATE MATTERS.

Our friends throughout the State will place us under obligations if they will furnish us with any items of news that may transpire in their respective sections, as we desire to make this department specially full.

Edgecombe farmers used 3,500 tons of fertilizers on their present crops.

Raleigh is beginning to come into the Stateville market freely, and trade is improving.

The Democrats and Liberals raised a Green and Brown flag pole at Salisbury last week.

The stockholders in the Western North Carolina Railroad, held their annual meeting at Old Fort, August 27.

A TERRIBLE storm passed over Statesville Wednesday night, the wind was furious and the thunder and lightning terrific.

The Battleboro Advertiser says a negro man was killed by lightning in that county while chopping in the woods last week.

The Grant and Wilson clubs in the different Wards of Wilmington have got at loggerheads and trouble is anticipated in the Radical camp of that city.

The Rocky Mount Mail gives the following particulars of a serious affray that took place in Greenville on the 27th ult.:

It seems that one Roach a Deputy U. S. Marshal, personally insulted by slanderous and abusive language, a merchant of that place by the name of F. M. Smith. On being charged with it by Smith, he Roach denied it. But Smith having a witness with him proved it upon him in such a manner that he could no longer deny it, and said, "if you want a row, I am in." As Smith drew back his stick Roach drew a pistol and commenced firing, the first shot passing through Smith's arm, when an officer ran up to prevent him from shooting again, when he received a shot in his bowels, which may prove fatal. A second officer ran up, whom Roach also shot, inflicting a dangerous if not serious wound. Roach in striking off a blow shot himself through the arm, fracturing the bone to such an extent an amputation may be necessary.

FARCICAL.

To any one acquainted with the tricks and character of the Radicals in North Carolina, it is disgusting to read the comments of their press on the recent election.

The affect great indignation at the idea of contesting the election of Caldwell and threaten to resist the action of the Legislature, if after a thorough investigation, it should be decided that Judge Merrimon was honestly elected, instead of inviting, they definitely investigation. They do not even assume the air of innocence. They act as if they knew an investigation would be fatal to their success and have pronounced resistance in advance. Such conduct is in perfect keeping with a party that knows no law, but lives on strife and war. Such conduct is abhorrent to the feeling of good citizens, who love peace and wish to preserve as far as possible the purity of the ballot.

How stands the case? Here are reports coming in from every direction of frauds and intimidation on the part of the Radicals. We find Caldwell's majority only counted by hundreds in a vote of over two hundred thousand. Yet, if the Democrats propose simply to investigate and test the authenticity of these reports, in order that frauds, if they have been committed, may be brought to light; the Radicals, true to their instincts and in their zeal to another fraud, raise a great hue and cry about thwarting the popular will, and proclaim in advance that they resist and the people must take things in their own hands, unless Caldwell is allowed to qualify, no matter whether he is elected fairly or unfairly.

Now all this cant and braggadocio spirit is a perfect farce. If there should be elicited evidence of fraud and intimidation sufficient to elect Judge Merrimon, he will certainly be inaugurated Governor of North Carolina. If there is not proof, clear and incontestable to establish that fact he will not be. No one proposes to put Caldwell out and Merrimon in, as the Radicals generally do in such cases, because we have a majority in the legislature. On the other hand, all that is proposed is an examination into the matter, and if Caldwell and his party were moved by high principles of honor, they would invite such an examination that they might vindicate themselves, if these reports are untrue. Such would be the course of an honest man, where reports of a derogatory character were circulated against him, to the only way in which he could sustain his good name. Not so with Radicals though. They care nothing for their reputation of the State, so they can bask in power and revel in the spoils of office.

They talk about resisting the law, but authority of North Carolina! What sort of spectacle would we behold! A few thousand sealaws and carpetbaggers marching to Raleigh side by side with their deluded negro followers side to drive out the legally constituted authorities of the State!

They take to the law in their own hands! Oh! what a fall, my countrymen.

The Legislature is composed of a majority of Democrats. They were elected because of their opposition to swindling, thievery and corruption. They will perform their duty fearlessly and honestly, regardless of brags or threats from any quarter. They will, as far as they can, protect the people, and, in doing so, they will guard with vigilance the purity of the ballot box, upon which is their main reliance for protection.—Battleground Advertiser.

Thousands of Democrats and Liberal Republicans are, it is said, being arrested by the Federal office-holders in Texas, on trivial charges, and then released after being bound to appear the 4th of November at distant places for trial.

MONDAY..... SEPTEMBER 2, 1872.

SMALL THINGS.

A traveller through a dusty road,
Strewed acorns on the lea,
And one sprout and sprouted up,
And grew into a tree.
Love sought its shade at evening time,
To breathe its early fragrance;
And when the sun was in his noon,
To bask beneath its boughs;
The dormouse loved its dangling twigs,
The bird sweet music bore;
It was a glad life in space,
A sleeping earthenware.

A little spring had lost its way
Amid the green and fern;
A little stranger scooped a well,
Where weary men might turn;
He waded it in and out with care,
A lad on the brink;
He judged it safe indeed he did,
That toll might drink.
Again—and lo! the well,
Farmers never dried,
Left ten dry parching tongues,
Left a life beside!

A man dropped a random thought,
And in his mind new—
A pale fancy of the brain,
Strong, in being true;
One up a genial mind,
And to the light he bent,
And saw the sun ray,
A monitor's name;
He thought was small—its issues great,
A water-fall a hill,
A man in his prime far down,
And chevrons still.

A harmless man, amid a crowd,
That thronged the daily mart,
Let fall a word of hope and love,
Unstrung from the heart;
A whisper on the tumult thrown—
A brother from the dust,
It raised a soul from death,
O germ! O fount! O word of love!
You were but little at the first,
But mighty at the last.
